To Whom It May Concern:

Specialty Mobile Systems got started in the transport business in 1989 as an extension of the high quality service that was provided in the manufacturing and reconditioning of custom commercial vehicles at Midwest Mobile Technologies. During that time, Donald Ferris, an employee and subsequently an owner of MMT, transported literally hundreds of custom vehicles throughout the United States. When Don sold MMT in 2001, he founded Specialty Mobile Systems. Specialty Mobile Systems is a family run and operated business, and it specializes in selling new and reconditioned used commercial vehicles.

In June of 2003, Specialty Mobile Systems expanded to create Specialty Mobile Transport, which serves as a brokerage company to handle the transport of vehicles for the public, manufacturers, and other entities. Specialty Mobile Transport has been working with the same reliable agents for the past five years, staying in close contact with them to ensure a smooth and speedy delivery of vehicles.

At the end of 2003, Specialty Mobile Transport purchased a brand new Ford F50 and a 3 car wedge trailer (the wedge trailer has been replaced with a 2 car enclosed trailer). This purchase enabled Specialty Mobile Transport to expand and create Specialty Mobile Carriers. In 2004, Specialty Mobile Carriers added a 2000 Volvo semi-tuck and 6 car enclosed trailer to the transport fleet. In December of 2005, the 2000 Volvo was replaced with a 2006 Volvo. In 2005 Specialty Mobile Carriers also established its first owner – operator relationship. Specialty Mobile Carriers specializes in the transport of vehicles within the continental United States. Because of the excellent reputation and the stability of its parent company, Specialty Mobile Carriers offers dependable transportation services that will consistently deliver your vehicle to its final destination.

Specialty Mobile Transport will accommodate your move in a timely, efficient and honest manner. Our prices are competitive, and our service is beyond compare. We look forward to helping to move your vehicle in the near future.

Sincerely,

Corry Mathews

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am applying for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of not reporting all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 3.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note. If a requester gives you a form asking for your TIN to request your TIN, you must use the new form, which is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Pub. 545, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Non-resident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement that specifies the following five items:

- The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
- The treaty article addressing the income.
- The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
- The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
- The facts and circumstances to justify the exemption from tax under the provisions of the treaty article.
